Act for Peace News: Your Gifts in Action

Act for Peace news reports that in response to the East Africa Crisis over 200 families in the most dire need have been provided with essential survival rations and further support is being distributed. Gifts in response to this appeal have also assisted over 2,200 thirsty children and families to access clean, safe drinking water. Further donations are still needed. Go to www.actforpeace.org.au

For prayer and action ...

May God bless you with discomfort at easy answers, half-truths, superficial relationships, so that you may live deep within your heart.

May God bless you with anger at injustice, oppression and exploitation, so that you will work for justice, equity and peace.

May God bless you with tears to shed for those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation and war, so that you will reach out your hand to comfort them, and change their pain to joy.

And may God bless you with the foolishness to think that you can make a difference in the world, so that you will do the things which others tell you cannot be done. Amen.

The session will include intentional table conversations.

TRINITY SESSIONS

Friday 15 September 8.00pm

Madison Violet
with Alana Jagt

Tickets $25/$20 Music 8.00pm (doors 7.30pm)

Violet last played at Trinity Sessions in February 2008 and it is so great to have them playing with us again for so many reasons; not the least of which is their beautiful songs and music. When you hear them, the first thing you'll notice is that their voices blend together, symbiotically, like family: Born to sing the same songs. And over the past decade and a half, the pair have taken to genre-bending, moving effortlessly from folk to pop to electronic to Americana. In a word, they are musical chameleons.
