CARING FOR ONE ANOTHER

For many years here at CoTT we have had a 'system' of caring for each other. This has been facilitated by the Elders. Currently the Elders are reviewing our caring and Sue has devised a (very brief) questionnaire to help in the process. Please take a few minutes to complete the form, copies of which will be available for the next few weeks.

SANDS ANNUAL CANDLE LIGHTING CEREMONY 17 OCTOBER

This Wednesday SANDS is holding this ceremony in our church. SANDS South Australia offers support to all bereaved parents and relatives who have suffered the death of a baby anytime from conception through to 28 days after birth - this includes, miscarriage, newborn death, stillbirth, ectopic pregnancy and genetic/medically advised termination.

The Annual Candle Lighting Ceremony will be held to honour all babies we have had, but never held, or only got to hold for too short a time. The ceremony commences at 7pm. You are invited to bring along a candle to light on the night, or there will be candles available to purchase at the beginning of the ceremony.

Sands South Australia is a self-help group consisting solely of bereaved parents and receives no government funding. Further information about the event and SANDS is available here :
