A WARM WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us today.

WORKING BEE: Unfortunately, list of jobs was not on the notice-board last week, but is now. If you can help at any time, that would be most welcome.

PUB LUNCH: on Sunday, 28 October.

ELDERS meet next on Tuesday, 6 November at the home of John & Jacqui Edwards.

CHURCH COUNCIL meets next on Tuesday, 13 November.

MEETING OF THE CONGREGATION: will be held on Sunday 18 November. Reports from all committees and groups are to be forwarded to Heather Watson by 28 October.

ROSTERS for November-December will be drawn up this week. If you will not be available during that time, please let Val know (val.canty@gmail.com). If you would like to be part of the group who help with various duties on Sundays, please speak with Val.

DISTURBANCE TO WORSHIP SERVICE

The Elders and Church Council have been considering the possibility of a disturbance to our worship services by person or persons unknown. This has arisen because of information from other sources (notably Pitt Street Uniting Church in Sydney, which is a well-known inclusive congregation).

A statement of procedures has been prepared and approved by the Church Council. This statement is being circulated to members through the newsletter today.

It is proposed that there be a 'practice session' to hopefully enable the congregation to feel comfortable with the suggested process.

Any questions can be shared with Elders, Church Council members or Rev Sue Wickham.

TRINITY SESSIONS

Saturday 10 November 7.30pm

Abby Dobson

Tickets $35/$30 Music 7.30pm (doors 7.00pm)

'It's Okay, Sweetheart' is the title of Abby Dobson's new solo album. Recorded in Nashville, Tennessee with Brad Jones (Melody Pool, Josh Rouse) and in Sydney with Josh Schuberth, this album is a collection of bittersweet songs by one of Australia's most loved and recognised singers and songwriters. And this new album of Abby's breath-taking songs of longing and rapture is a flipping long-awaited treat.

'It's okay, Sweetheart' will be released digitally on Friday, 26 October and CDs will be available at her show.

CARING FOR ONE ANOTHER

For many years here at CoTT we have had a 'system' of caring for each other. This has been facilitated by the Elders. Currently the Elders are reviewing our caring and Sue has devised a (very brief) questionnaire to help in the process. Please take a few minutes to complete the form, copies of which will be available for the next few weeks.

The Urban Mission Network with Unity and Friends will host a drinks and cheese evening on Wednesday 31 October
6.00 pm - 8.00 pm
Church of the Trinity

A time of conversation, storytelling, learning from one another, and reflecting on what it means to be an open and affirming church, as we discern our response to same-gender marriage within the context of the Assembly Decision and the upcoming Presbytery and Synod meeting. Stories from members of Unity and Friends and articles arising from the recent UCA Assembly will guide our conversations.

RSVP before Monday 22 October to susan@urbannetwork.org.au
